TITLE I— SYSTEM OF BYLAWS

100.00 PURPOSE

100.01 The purpose of the Bylaws shall be to specify the powers, functions, duties, and responsibilities of all ASWSU officials not otherwise enumerated in the Constitution.

101.00 BYLAW AUTHORITY

101.01 No part of these Bylaws may supersede any part of the Constitution.

101.02 If any part of these Bylaws is found to be in conflict with the Constitution, they shall be amended in such a fashion that they are no longer in conflict with the Constitution.

101.03 None of these Bylaws contained herein may act in an ex post facto manner.

102.00 BYLAW COMPLIANCE

102.01 All members of ASWSU must comply with the Bylaws unless such compliance is in direct conflict with the Constitution, the rules and regulations of Washington State University, or the laws of the city, county, state, or federal government.

102.02 Deliberate and/or negligent disregard of these Bylaws shall be grounds for removal from office as articulated in the Constitution or Bylaws.

102.03 Bylaws may be suspended temporarily by a three-quarters-plus-one ($3/4$ plus 1) vote of the total membership of the Senate.

A. To suspend a bylaw, a member of ASWSU shall submit a proposal with sponsorship of a member of ASWSU Senate.

1. Before a vote on the Senate floor, the suspension proposal will be seen by Rules Council to be approved

a. After approval by the Rules Council the proposal will be sent to the Judicial Board for consideration and will have until the next Senate meeting to submit their recommendation.

102.04 Bylaws may be suspended temporarily by a three-quarters-plus-one ($3/4$ plus 1) vote of the total membership of the Senate as they apply to the first readings of bills.

102.05 Bylaws may be suspended temporarily by a three-quarters-plus-one ($3/4$ plus 1) vote of the Internal Affairs Committee during an Internal Affairs Committee meeting as they apply to the first readings of legislation.

103.00 BYLAW FORM

103.01 The Bylaws shall be divided into titles dealing with related and similar subjects. Each title shall be, in turn, divided into a numerically designed set of chapters. Each chapter may be subdivided by means of a decimal arrangement and further subdivision shall be by capital letters, numbers, and lower-case numbers respectively.

104.00 BYLAW AMENDMENT

104.01 The Bylaws may be amended and/or enacted by a bill that receives a two-thirds ($2/3$) vote of the seated membership of the Senate.

104.02 In those Bylaws that serve as the Judicial Board Procedures Manual, the Senate must seek a recommendation in the form of a vote from the Judicial Board before amending and/or enacting Bylaws that serve as Judicial Board Procedures. If within five (5) school days the Judicial Board has not responded with an official stance, the Senate may amend and/or enact Bylaws as they see fit.

TITLE II— ASWSU OFFICERS

200.00 DUTIES OF ASWSU OFFICERS

200.01 ASWSU Officers shall be those members of ASWSU who are elected, appointed, or confirmed to any official position, including:

- A. President;
- B. Vice President;
- C. Executive Officers;
- D. Senators/Delegates;
- E. Senate Administrative Assistant;
- F. Judicial Board members;
- G. Election Board members;

- I. Directors of Auxiliaries.

200.02 ASWSU Officers shall:

- A. Hold no other official position within ASWSU during their term;
- B. Attend health and safety training within eight (8) weeks of the start of the fall semester or of taking office.
- C. Attend a conflict-resolution workshop within eight (8) weeks of the start of the fall semester or of taking office.
- D. Attend a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion training within eight (8) weeks of the start of the fall semester and spring semester or of taking office.
 1. Arrangements should be made by the Chief of Staff and Pro Tempore.

201.00 CONDUCT AND DUTIES

201.01 Each ASWSU Officer must:

- A. Be a member of ASWSU;
- B. Be a full-time student during the academic year;
- C. Have a 2.5 GPA or higher cumulatively at time of appointment during their term;
 1. If an officer's admitted college requires a higher GPA, the individual will be held to the standard of the college.
 2. Should an officer's GPA fall below a 2.5, a probationary period will be enforced, so long as they should meet with the ASWSU advisor and necessary parties regarding the academic circumstance.
 - a. The probationary period will only be allowed so long as the advisor is informed of the circumstances in the semester of the academic deficiency.
 - b. To maintain status as an ASWSU Officer, a minimum of a 2.0 GPA must be maintained.
- D. Officers shall not be on disciplinary probation as defined by the Office of Student Conduct.

202.00 RESIGNATIONS

- 202.01 To resign from their position, ASWSU Officers must submit an official letter of resignation, in writing, either physically or electronically.
- A. The Vice President, Executive Officers, Judicial Board Members, Election Board Members, Committee Chairs, and Directors of Auxiliaries must resign to the President.
 - B. Senators, Delegates, and the Senate Administrative Assistant must resign to the Senate Pro Tempore.
 - 1. Senators and Delegates must notify their Committee Chairs of their resignations within 72 hours of the resignation being received.
 - C. The President and Senate Pro Tempore must resign to the Chief Justice of the Judicial Board.
- 202.02 Advisors must be notified with 72 hours of the resignation being received.
- 202.03 At the time the President, Senate Pro Tempore, or the Chief Justice receive an ASWSU Officers' resignation, the resignation is final and cannot be rescinded.

TITLE III— THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

300.00 POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE SENATE

300.01 The Senate, as the legislative branch, shall be the policy-making body of ASWSU.

300.02 The Senate shall have and exercise the following powers and duties:

- A. Adopt and amend the Senate budget;
- B. Pass resolutions on behalf of ASWSU;
- C. Pass bills to require ASWSU action or create policy changes;
- D. Enter ASWSU into contractual or financial relationships;
- E. Confirm Presidential appointments;
- F. Remove ASWSU officials; and
- G. Other duties as articulated in the Constitution or Bylaws.

301.00 COMPOSITION OF THE SENATE

301.01 The Senate shall be composed of six (6) Senators representing all ASWSU members, ten (10) Senators representing ASWSU members certified into academic colleges, four (4) Senators representing ASWSU members not certified into an academic college, one (1) Senator representing the Honors College, and two (2) Delegates representing Freshmen students.

301.02 The allocation of Senate seats to each academic college shall be as follows:

- A. The College of Arts and Sciences shall be represented by three (3) of the seats.
- B. The Voiland College of Engineering and Architecture shall be represented by two (2) of the seats.
- C. The Carson College of Business, The Edward R. Murrow College of Communication, The College of Education, Sport, and Human Sciences, The College of Veterinary Medicine, The College of Agricultural, Human, and Natural Resource Sciences shall be represented by one (1) seat each.
- D. A minimum of three (3) senators must sit on at least one external committee;

1. Cougar Food Pantry, Tech Fee Committee, S&A Committee, Student Health Advisory Board, UREC Committee, Transit Committee.
- 301.03 Every four (4) years, with the first census occurring the Fall semester of 2016, the Senate shall be required to use the information from the Office of Institutional Research to determine the number of degrees given by each college and the number of uncertified students and make appropriate redistricting adjustments for the next year's Senate composition.
- 301.04 To determine the allocation of Senate seats, the process is outlined as follows:
- A. The "number of total undergraduate degrees granted by WSU", as stated in the information given by the Office of Institutional Research, will be taken and divided by the "number of Senators representing ASWSU members certified into academic colleges" to reach the "number of ASWSU members represented per senator".
 - B. Based on the final results for the "number of ASWSU Senators to represent the respective academic college", numbers will have to be rounded up or down in order to fit the capacity of ten (10) Senators representing ASWSU members certified into an academic college.
 - C. If there is a tie between two degree granting colleges, the Senate must vote upon the degree granting college to break the tie by a two-thirds (2/3) vote and approved by the Judicial Board.
 - D. Composition of the Senate will be overseen by the Senate Pro-Tempore while abiding by section 301.03.
 - E. An Excel document titled, "Composition of Senate", can be found in the ASWSU Governing Documents to assist in arriving to the final composition of the Senate.
- 301.05 The Vice President shall be the Chair of the Senate.
- 301.06 The Senate shall hire a Senate Administrative Assistant.
- A. Should a vacancy occur, the Pro Tempore shall fill the vacancy in accordance with Section 318.00.
- 302.00 DUTIES OF SENATORS/DELEGATES
- 302.01 All Senators and Delegates shall:
- A. Regularly attend Senate meetings;
 - B. Regularly attend Committee meetings;
 - C. Author and/or sponsor items of legislation;
 1. Senators must author at least one (1) resolution, OR one (1) referendum, OR two (2) bylaws per semester.
 2. Senators must also sponsor at least two (2) pieces of legislation.
 - a. Authored legislation does not need to be passed in order to meet the requirements for the semester.
 - D. Not accumulate more than three (3) unexcused absences per semester during their term as outlined in section 303.00.
 - E. Submit the names of all registered student organizations they are affiliated with and their respective roles within, to the Pro Tempore by the sixth (6th) week of the semester they are elected and the sixth (6th) week of every semester until their term concludes.

1. In the instance a Senator/Delegate acquires any additional affiliations with registered student organizations beyond those already submitted, that Senator/Delegate shall inform the Pro Tempore in advance of the following Senate meeting.
2. A publicly-accessible list of Senators/Delegates and their respective affiliated registered student organizations shall be maintained and updated by the Pro Tempore.

F. Other duties as articulated in the Constitution or Bylaws.

302.02

Senators shall:

- A. Hold office from Commencement to Commencement;
- B. Hold three (3) office hours per week;
 1. One (1) office hour can be dedicated to attending an ASWSU Programming Committee event or meeting, or participate in a volunteer opportunity approved by the Senate Pro Tempore;
 - a. In the case that the university has transitioned to an online learning environment, at least one (1) office hour must be done outside of the office to interact with constituents per semester.
 - b. At-Large Senators will be required to attend an ASWSU Programming event once a month in place of their out-of-office hour;
 - c. For Senators representing the College of Education, Sport, and Human Sciences, office hours may be completed virtually via a university-approved video conferencing platform, including Zoom, in recognition of practicum, student teaching, and field-based scheduling demands, as approved by the Senate Pro Tempore.
 2. Senate-related work must be done during office hours.
 - a. Senators are not expected to do senate-related work when attending ASWSU Programming Committee meeting or event;
 - b. A meeting with administration or campus leadership can be supplemental or replace office hours for the amount of time the meeting takes.
- C. Participate in three (3) outreach activities, such as tabling, programs, or other events, totaling at least three (3) hours per semester;
 1. In the case that the university has transitioned to an online learning environment, senators shall participate in two (2) virtual events per semester.
- D. Be certified into a major in one of the colleges they are elected to represent with the exception of Uncertified, Honors, and At-Large Senators as outlined in 301.01;
 1. Senators shall be eligible to serve the remainder of their term even if they certify into a college or a different college than they represent.

- E. Education Practicum Accommodation
 - 1. Senators representing the College of Education, Sport, and Human Science who are enrolled in a required practicum or student teaching semester shall be temporarily exempt from fulfilling tabling requirements and in-person Senate/committee meetings during their placement.
 - 2. During this period, these Senators shall;
 - a. Remain responsible for their legislation requirements as outline in Section 302.01 (C);
 - b. Participate in Senate and committee meetings remotely when possible, as determined in consultation with the Senate Pro Tempore;
 - c. Provide the Senate Pro Tempore and Senate advisor with documentation of their practicum or student teaching placement, including expected start and end dates;
 - d. Resume full Senatorial duties immediately upon the conclusion of their practicum period.
 - 3. Senators granted this accommodation shall not be subject to disciplinary action or compensation withholding under Section 318.03 for non-fulfillment of office hours, tabling, or attendance requirements during their practicum or student teaching placement.

302.03

Delegates shall:

- A. Be appointed on the Senate on which they will serve;
- B. Hold one (1) office hour per week;
 - 1. A meeting with administration or campus leadership can be supplemental or replace office hours for the amount of time the meeting takes;
 - 2. This office hour can be dedicated to attending an ASWSU Programming Committee event or meeting;
- C. Participate in one (1) outreach activity, such as tabling, programs, or other events, totaling at least (1) hour per semester;
- D. Have all speaking rights of a Senator;
- E. Not vote on the Senate floor;
- F. Not be counted toward quorum during Senate meetings;
- G. Be voting members of the Committee(s) to which they are assigned;
- H. Be counted toward quorum of the Committee(s) to which they are assigned;
- I. Fulfill specific requirements for their appointed position.
 - 1. Freshman Delegates shall be admitted to Washington State University as a freshman as defined by the Office of Admissions.
 - i. Have fewer than thirty (30) credits at the beginning of their term;
 - ii. Have participated and/or completed the Running Start program during high school with more than thirty (30) credits at the beginning of their term;
 - iii. Have completed education through a home school program;

- iv. Students who are age twenty-five (25) and older who haven't attended college since high school graduation;
- J. Maintain "firstyearcougs" Instagram page.
 - 1. Post information and resources at least every two (2) weeks.

303.00 SENATOR/DELEGATE ABSENCES

303.01 Senators/Delegates shall not have more than three (3) unexcused absences or six (6) excused absences per semester during their term.

- A. These shall include unexcused absences from Senate meetings, Council meetings, Committee meetings, and any other event, meeting, or obligation deemed mandatory by the Senate Pro Tempore.
- B. Absences, tardies, or cases where individuals need to leave early must be communicated in writing to the Pro Tempore, Committee, or Council Chair twenty-four (24) hours in advance unless there are extenuating circumstances deemed appropriate by the Senate Pro Tempore, Committee, or Council Chair.
 - 1. In the event that a Senator/Delegate cannot attend the outreach event hour sign up for, they must communicate twenty-four (24) hours in advance with the Pro Tempore and External Chair about their updated time.
 - a. Failure to communicate with the Pro Tempore and External Chair will result in an unexcused absence.
- C. Any Senator/Delegate who arrives at a Senate, Committee, or Council meeting in excess of five (5) minutes after its scheduled start time is considered tardy at the discretion of the Senate Pro Tempore, Committee, or Council Chair.
- D. If a Senator/Delegate is unable to make it to any of the meetings or events listed above, they shall be required to make up the absence through an approved alternative.
 - 1. Approve alternatives include but are not limited to: ASWSU Programming Committee meetings, ASWSU Executive meetings, or an approved student event where they are representing ASWSU Senate
 - a. These events are subject to the discretion of the Senate Pro Tempore.
 - 2. In the case that an alternative is being pursued for an absence, the Senator/Delegate must communicate with the Senate Pro Tempore about the event, how long it is, and when it is taking place.
- E. Any Senator/Delegate who receives three (3) unexcused tardies is considered to have one (1) unexcused absence.
- F. In case of accumulation of unexcused absences, the Senate Pro Tempore shall inform the Senator/delegate in writing and enforce the following unexcused absence rules:
 - 1. First (1st) unexcused absence: the Senator/Delegate shall receive an informal reprimand from the Senate Pro Tempore.
 - 2. Second (2nd) unexcused absence: the Senator/Delegate shall be required to meet with the Senate Pro Tempore to discuss the absences.

3. Third (3rd) unexcused absence: the Senator/Delegate shall be required to meet with the Senate Pro Tempore and the Senate advisor to discuss the unexcused absences and the ASWSU Code of Ethics.
 4. Should the Senator/Delegate accumulate any further unexcused absences: the Senate Pro Tempore shall refer the Senator/Delegate to the Judicial Board within ten (10) days for action under section 500.01.
- G. The Senate Pro Tempore shall notify the Senator/Delegate of an unexcused absence in writing within five (5) days of the unexcused absence.
 - H. The Senate Pro Tempore shall notify the Senator/Delegate of the accumulation of six (6) excused absences in writing within five (5) days of excused absences.
 - I. The Senator/Delegate has the right to appeal any unexcused absence given by the Pro Tempore to the Judicial Board within five (5) days of notification.

304.00 SENATE MEETINGS

304.01 The Senate shall meet at least once per week except if university-wide breaks conflict.

304.02 Special meetings may be called by the President, Pro Tempore, one third (1/3) of the seated Senate membership, or upon petition of ten percent (10%) of the membership of ASWSU.

304.03 The decision to cancel a Senate meeting shall be made by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Rules Council at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the scheduled start time and shall be announced in writing by the Senate Pro Tempore.

- A. Senators shall be required to make up the two (2) hours of work lost by the cancellation of a Senate meeting through additional office hours or constituent outreach prior to the following Senate meeting.

304.04 A quorum shall be two-thirds (2/3) of the seated Senate membership.

304.05 All meetings shall be held in accordance with appropriate laws, including but not limited to the ASWSU constitution, university policies, and the Washington State Open Public Meeting Act (RCW 42.30).

304.06 The most recent published edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern the proceedings of Senate meetings, so long as they shall not conflict with any of the rules of procedure specifically set forth in the Constitution and/or Bylaws.

304.07 The following additional rules shall govern Senate meetings:

- A. Senators shall be allowed to yield, to the end of their time, to those normally unable to gain the floor.
- B. Calling the question shall end debate. It shall be acted upon as a request to the Chair. If any objections are made, debate shall remain open.
- C. Cloture may be invoked as a request to the Chair at any time. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the seated Senate membership. Cloture shall suspend any Senate debate, discussion, or filibuster occurring at the given time. Cloture is neither amendable nor debatable, excluding reasonable discussion of clarification.
- D. Each meeting shall begin with a land acknowledgment of the Nez Perce Tribe and Palus people by the Chair.

1. The words read at each meeting shall be: “We acknowledge that we are meeting today as members of a community which stand on the traditional homelands of the Palus Band of Indigenous People and the ceded lands of the Nez Perce Tribe. We further acknowledge their presence here since time immemorial and recognize their continuing connection to the land, to the water, and to their ancestors.”
 - a. At the commencement of each Senate, the Pro Tempore shall revise the land acknowledgement under advisement of community members.
- 304.08 The Vice President shall be the Chair of the Senate and may only vote in the event of a tie.
- A. In the absence of the Vice President, the Pro Tempore shall chair the Senate.
 - B. In the absence of both the Vice President and the Pro Tempore, the responsibilities of the Senate Chair shall pass to the Chair of the Internal Affairs Committee.
 - C. In the absence of the officers listed above, the responsibilities of the Senate chair shall pass to the Vice Chair of the Internal Affairs Committee.
 - D. In the absence of all officers listed above, the chain of command shall be as follows:
 1. The Engagement Chair
 2. The External Chair
 3. The Engagement Vice-Chair
 4. The External Vice-Chair
 - a. The Acting Chair shall not maintain their voting rights as a Senator and only vote in the event of a tie and assume all responsibilities of the Senate Chair for the duration of the meeting.
- 304.09 All votes on legislation and confirmations shall be by roll call.
- 304.10 Proxy voting shall not be allowed.
- 304.11 Abstentions shall be considered a temporary suspension of the abstaining Senator’s seated membership for the duration of the specific vote at hand; therefore, the total number of possible votes shall be decreased by one.
- A. Senators must abstain during a vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest arising from other involvement.
 1. A conflict of interest may be, but is not limited to:
 - a. A relationship extending out of ASWSU organizations;
 - b. A previous encounter that may unfairly influence a decision;
 - c. Gaining personal benefit in the professional setting as a result of voting on the decision;
 - d. A clash between personal interests and the responsibilities of a Senator as outlined in section 303.00.
- 304.12 At Senate meetings, Senator/Delegate absences will be read by the Pro Tempore and the absences may be voted excused by a majority vote of seated Senate membership.

- 304.13 Any Senator/Delegate who arrives at a Senate in excess of five (5) minutes after its schedule start time is considered tardy at the discretion of the Pro Tempore.
- 305.00 BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS
- 305.01 Definitions:
- A. Bills are a modification to the existing ASWSU Bylaws proposed to the Senate for approval and to the President for ratification;
 - 1. Bills with the intent to change the name of a department, committee, or any other group that appears within multiple sections of the ASWSU Bylaws will be accepted for all sections with the modification of the first mention of the group name.
 - B. Resolutions are documents formally stating the official policy, opinion, will, or intent of ASWSU proposed to the Senate for approval and to the Vice President for ratification;
 - C. ‘Legislation’ shall be the collective term for Bills and Resolutions as used in this section of the Bylaws;
 - D. ‘Committee(s)’ shall refer to the Internal Affairs Committee and the External Affairs Committee as defined by sections 309 and 307 respectively, with the understanding that;
 - 1. Bills shall be heard before the Internal Affairs Committee;
 - 2. Resolutions shall be heard before the External Affairs Committee;

TITLE XIII— ASWSU CODE OF ETHICS

1300.00 CODE OF ETHICS

1300.01 Preamble: We the leaders of the Associated Students of Washington State University represent the diverse student population of Washington State University. ASWSU seeks to promote the well-being of students by respecting the integrity, dignity, and worth of individuals, with the acknowledgement of differences. The association provides services and opportunities to the student body while maintaining a professional environment. Allegiance to these ideas requires those in positions of leadership within ASWSU to refrain from, and to discourage, behaviors which threaten the freedom and respect every individual deserves.

1300.02

Mission and Goals of ASWSU:

- A. I will place the interests of the membership of ASWSU above my personal goals and values and will clearly distinguish between statements that represent my personal views and those of ASWSU;
- B. Recognizing that ASWSU is a legal organization under Washington State Law, I will obey all lawful authorities, including the Articles of Incorporation, State of Washington Administrative Codes, S&A Fee Guidelines, etc;
- C. I will read and seek to understand the Constitution and Bylaws of ASWSU prior to accepting my position of responsibility and will act in accordance with the spirit and intent of those documents;
- D. I will acknowledge and make public any potential conflict of interest arising from my other involvement;
- E. I will actively seek to involve diverse groups of students in ASWSU programs and services while upholding and respecting cultures that differ from my own;
- F. I will work to uphold a positive image of the Association;
- G. Recognizing that student leaders serve as role models, I will refrain from conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, discrimination, and other forms of conduct prohibited by the WSU Conduct Code;
- H. I will not misuse the tangible and intangible resources of the Association for personal gain; and
- I. I will follow the approved policies for bringing about change as stated in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association.

1300.03

Abide by the Honor Statement:

- A. I will act in accordance with and promote the WSU Honor Statement:
 - 1. “Cougs act with integrity, respect, and dignity. In order to uphold the honor of our University, we are steadfast in our commitment to academic excellence and honesty. As members of the Cougar Community, we strive to incorporate these values into our daily lives.”

1300.04

Treatment of Colleagues:

- A. I will demonstrate professional courtesy, emphasizing respect for others and their opinions;
- B. I will explore just methods of resolving conflict;
- C. I will recognize a fair decision-making process, which acknowledges and respects both majority and minority voices in the absence of parliamentary procedure;
- D. I will delegate responsibility with the expectation that those duties will be fulfilled reflecting personal methods and styles;

- E. I will support each individual's endeavors to fulfill the duties of their position;
- F. I will objectively evaluate the opinions and actions of others; and
- G. I will not tolerate language or actions that may discriminate against or devalue any individual student, group of students, or student organization.

1300.05

Obligations to the Students of WSU:

- A. I will be attentive and receptive to the diverse views and needs of my constituency;
- B. I will actively promote open, two-way communication between the ASWSU leadership and the undergraduate students we serve;
- C. I will use ASWSU powers and resources to advance the interests of the students of WSU;
- D. I will view my role as more than representation of student views. I will strive to serve as a strong advocate for students, provide leadership in times of controversy, and ensure that all viewpoints, however controversial, are recognized;
- E. In order to foster a fair and objective decision-making process throughout the organization, I will seek out relevant facts and opinions before decisions are made;
- F. I will present an accurate portrayal of the nature and extent of my qualifications and competencies when applying for positions within ASWSU and when representing ASWSU;
- G. I will not tolerate or engage in discriminatory harassment, including, but not limited to, sexual harassment and gender-based harassment. If I am a witness of discriminatory harassment by a member of ASWSU, I will immediately report to a direct supervisor/advisor, who is a mandatory reporter;
- H. I understand that if I am under investigation through the Office of Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) for discriminatory harassment, I will not be able to serve in any ASWSU-related position nor represent ASWSU until the investigation has concluded. It will be my responsibility to report to the appropriate advisor if I am under CCR investigation.

1300.06

Leadership:

- A. I will continue my personal development as a student leader by acquiring new knowledge, improving my skills, sharing ideas and information, and participating in the meetings and affairs of ASWSU;
- B. I will encourage and facilitate the leadership development of those students whom I supervise and/or with whom I work in the provision of programs and services; and
- C. I will stress ethical standards in any orientation session, retreat, and meetings that I develop, offer, and present for my fellow students.
- D. I will not use my office or position to unfairly benefit personal friends and colleagues.

1. Members of ASWSU will be able to advocate on the behalf of particular students during an appointment hearing or campaign so long as they differentiate their own view from that of ASWSU; and
 2. All members of ASWSU are expected to recuse themselves in decision-making processes where they have a conflict of interest.
